

Marrakech: 3-Day Private Sahara Tour to Fez via Merzouga

Duration 3 days

Discover the magic of the Sahara on a private 3-day tour from Marrakech to Fez. Ride camels, explore ancient kasbahs, and sleep under the stars in a Merzouga desert camp.

Full description

Embark on a private 3-day journey from Marrakech to Fez via the mesmerizing Merzouga Sahara Desert, an unforgettable adventure awaits.

Day 1 : Marrakech - Ait ben haddou - Valley of the Roses - Dades Gorges

Departure in the morning from your hotel/Riad in Marrakech towards the High Atlas and the Tichka pass (2260 m).

Then, visit to the UNESCO-listed Ait Ben Haddou, a fortified village boasting ancient kasbahs and stunning desert scenery. Explore the labyrinthine streets and marvel at the architectural wonders of this historic site.

Continue your adventure through the scenic Valley of the Roses, renowned for its fragrant blooms and picturesque landscapes. Enjoy a leisurely drive, taking in the breathtaking views of lush valleys and rugged mountains along the way.

Arrive at the majestic Dades Gorges, marveling at its towering cliffs and winding canyons, concluding a day immersed in Morocco's natural wonders. Enjoy a delicious dinner featuring local Moroccan cuisine, served amidst the serene surroundings of the Dades Gorges. Dinner and overnight in a guest house.

Day 2 : Dades Gorges - Todra Gorges - Erfoud - Merzouga Dunes

Start with a drive along the road of 1001 Kasbah to the Oasis of Tinghir, where you will deviate to a minor road driving along the river to Todra canyons, after have lunch at a local restaurant, continue early in the afternoon to Erfoud, famous for its dates market, and you will take a sandy track to reach Merzouga.

There, you are invited to take a camel ride before admiring the sunset over the dunes and tasting traditional mint tea. Dinner around a campfire, accompanied by nomad songs. Night at the foot of the Erg Chebbi dunes.

Day 3 : Erg chebbi - Ziz Valley - Midlet - Ifrane - Fez

Begins with a departure from Erg Chebbi, traversing through the stunning Ziz Valley with its lush palm groves. Next, journey through Midelt, nestled amidst the Atlas Mountains, offering breathtaking vistas.

Pass through Ifrane, known as "Little Switzerland," adorned with cedar forests.

Finally, arrive in Fez, a city steeped in history and culture, marking the end of a diverse and enriching journey.

Includes

Private Comfortable & Air-conditioned Vehicle

Hotel pick-up and drop-off

Professional & Bilingual Driver

Transportation Insurance

Sunset Camel Trekking Adventure Ride to the Desert

Sandboarding

2 Breakfasts & 2 Dinners

1 overnight stay in a comfortable hotel/riad in Dades with private bathroom

1 overnight stay in a luxury desert camp in Merzouga with dinner & breakfast

Berber drumming and music experience

4WD sunrise transfer from the desert camp to the meeting point with driver

Warm showers and toilets.

WiFi

Lunches

Highlights

- Discover the UNESCO-listed Ait Ben Haddou and its iconic desert kasbahs
- Drive through the stunning Valley of the Roses and traditional Berber villages
- Admire the dramatic rock formations of the Dades Gorges and lush valleys
- Visit the palm-lined oasis of Tinghir and walk through the Todra Gorges
- Ride a camel across golden dunes, watch a Sahara sunset, and camp in Merzouga

Price : 500€