

Marrakech: Agafay Desert Sunset, Camel Ride, and Dinner Show

Duration 5 hours

Savor a magical dinner in the Agafay Desert with this adventure from Marrakesh. Ride a camel along an ancient Berber path, watch the sunset, and relax with dinner and entertainment at a desert camp.

Full description

Explore the stunning landscapes of the Agafay Desert during a 20-minute camel ride on this tour from Marrakesh. Learn how argan oil is produced with a visit to a local manufacturer and stop to enjoy a traditional cup of tea. Admire the colors of the sunset and be served an authentic dinner.

Travel aboard a comfortable bus from Marrakesh and arrive in the Agafay Desert after just 40 minutes of driving. Leave the noisy city behind and immerse yourself in nature. Admire the unique rolling hills as you pass by Berber villages on the way to the desert of Agafay.

Visit a local argan oil cooperative to unlock the secrets to producing quality argan oil. Climb onto the back of a camel and travel to a spot where you can sip a welcoming glass of Moroccan tea. Follow a path through mud houses that are hundreds of years old.

Stop close to a beautiful camp to take in views of the sunset while partaking in some Moroccan sweets. Experience local flavors with a tasty dinner of salads, tajines, bread, and couscous. After dinner, watch a traditional show while listening to Berber music around the campfire.

Return to Marrakech after this incredible excursion. You should arrive back in the city around 9PM. For those staying outside of Marrakech you should be back around 09:30-10:30.
